

"The window to the world is open, so open up your mind's eye and see."

Dakota Brian Donley

May 30, 2007

6 years old

LECTURE

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF SUCCESS.

Introduction

There are elements of genius in every person that, if awakened and trained, will enable them to do something worthwhile. There are stores of energy and ambition in every brain that if, unlocked and given expression in action, will supply the force necessary to bring things to pass. There are germs of goodness and divinity in every soul that, if quicken by love and wrought into character, will enable a person to live a clean, self-respecting, moral life. Awaken the genius, unlock the energies, quicken the divinity in a person, change them from negative to positive, combine their intellect, energy, and conscience in harmonious expression, and you have given to that person the psychology of success.

Secret: Awakened = Learn (L), Trained = Apply (A), Worthwhile = Teach (T), Learn, Apply, Teach (LAT). This secret will unfold as you keep reading!

What is Success

What constitutes success? If we are to see things alike, we must have the same viewpoint. Briefly, success is the accomplishment of anything attempted. We must get a larger concept of the subject. We must measure success first from the viewpoint of the individual, and second from their relation to society. We must measure success in the individual not wholly by their objective achievements in the few years that belong to the earth life, but in the light of the fact that the...